"All American 1954"

We lovingly dedicate this volume of Chapel Memories to Mr. Richard D. York, whose courage and ideals of sportsmanship are a challenge to all.

FOREWORD

"After all, the rose is the thing——"

The past twelve years the Gray's Chapel High School has been the greenhouse that has nurtured the growth of the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-four. Mr. Otus C. Thomas, the caretaker, and his faculty gardeners have lovingly supervised its growth from the tiniest bud to the full-blown rose.

Our class flower, the rose, symbolizes our class spirit and personality. As the poet has said:

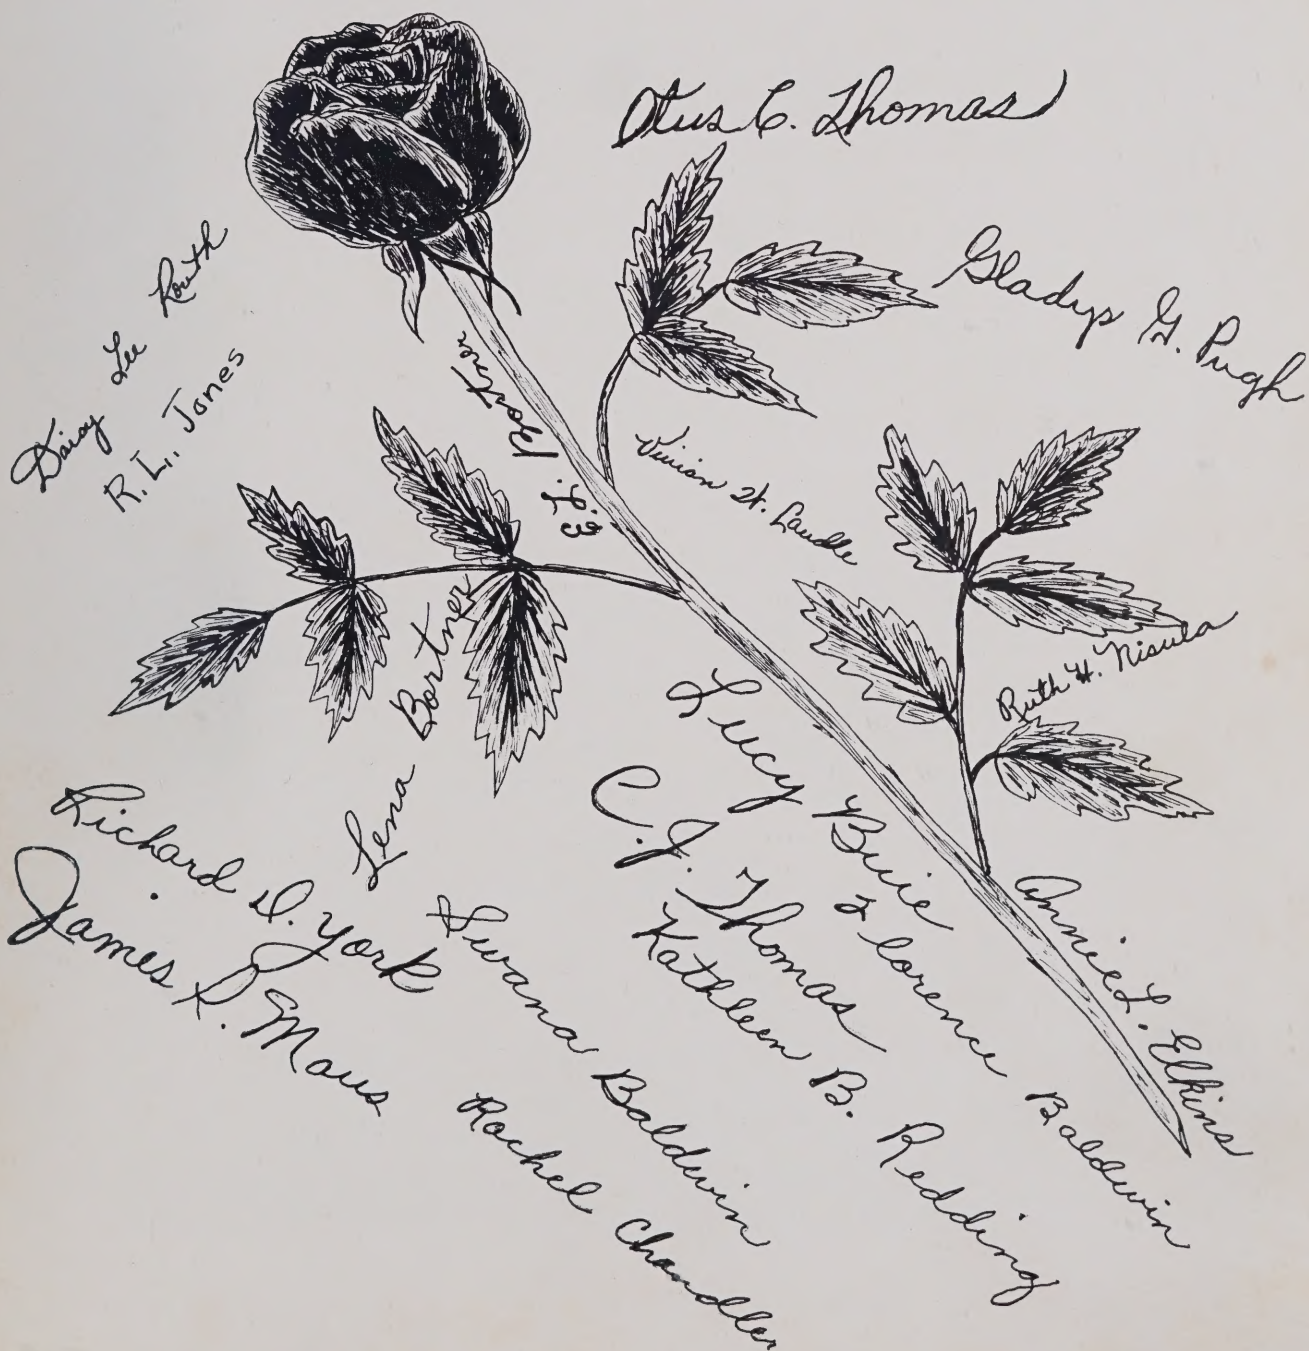

"Across the shining road of time,
A fragrant flower chart,
God sent a rose for every clime,
A rose for every heart."

The gift of courage for achievement, and the hope for peace and service to our fellowmen that we have cultivated and learned to encourage in our school years will be our tribute to the challenge of one who:

"When blossoms flower'd mid the snow,
Upon a winter night, was born the child,
The Christmas Rose,
The King of love and light."

FRUITS

"There is more to the rose than meets the eye."

The theme of our year book, The Rose, portrays the spirit of our principal gardener, Mr. Otus Thomas. His guidance and teaching has instilled in each of us the virtues of the rose—beauty, form, character, and a school history of which we are proud.

Sincerely
Class of '54

CLASS HISTORY

In the year nineteen hundred and forty-two, we, the Seniors, planted ourselves as seedlings in the soil of Gray's Chapel High School and began preparing ourselves for the harvest of this year, nineteen hundred and fifty-four. This preparation began with approximately thirty students, of which only sixteen remain. As miniature plants we needed the guidance, understanding and assistance which have been offered us by our parents and teachers during our twelve years in school.

In the first grade we were guided through the A, B, C's by Mrs. Allen, and in the second Miss Straughn helped our roots grow deeper and stronger. The third was somewhat noisy because we were stars of a rhythm band, under the direction of Mrs. Swaim. Our fourth year was highlighted by the making of pot holders for our mothers and raising potted plants to sell for the March of Dimes. Our willing helper here was Mrs. Elkins. By the time we entered the fifth grade, we were developing rapidly into fine young stems upon which many new shoots were being added from neighboring communities. We were blessed by having Miss Buie as our teacher who shared our enthusiasm in art work and proceeded along with us into the sixth grade. Our seventh year might be described as the most adventurous because of the many hikes we enjoyed. Sharing them with us was Mr. Cliff Thomas. In the eighth grade Mrs. Bruce Pugh traveled with us to the neighboring schools for the Junior League basketball games. Our girls walked off with the championship honors that year.

After the many years of preparation and growth we entered high school in nineteen hundred and fifty-one as fresh shining buds. As Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors we enjoyed many activities such as parties, banquets, Glee Club, and sports.

Now as Seniors we have grown from buds to full-blown roses. Our school years have given us many cherished memories that will remain in our hearts forever.

JETTIE JO ALLRED, Historian

"LITTLE ROSEBUDS"

CLASS POEM

"The Garden of Tomorrow" waits for us, the Class of '54.
Life holds for each of us joy and sorrow in store.
We may wander far before we find our place in life,
Through years of wondrous peace and possibly years of strife,
But somewhere there's a niche for each of us to fill.
God will help us find our way around some distant hill.
We'll journey on in life reaching upward for the sun,
Someday to find our niche and glory in a job well done.
